

Conference Center at Cure®

Gain admission to one of New York City's most flexible, cutting-edge event spaces

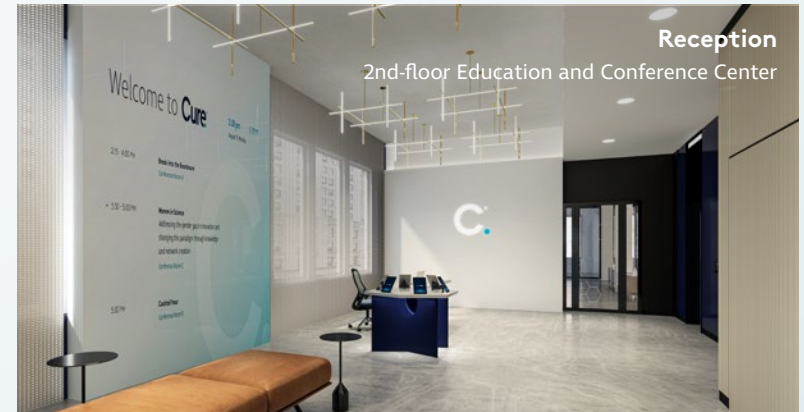

Residents and members of Cure enjoy preferred access to the building's four distinct event spaces, each outfitted with state-of-the-art technology and supported by its on-site team. Located in close proximity to Grand Central Terminal and Penn Station, Cure is a perfect place to meet with out-of-town clients or guests who are also interested in exploring the area's vibrant restaurant and bar scene.

- White-glove support from our hospitality team
- Curated, chef-driven menu from Cure's kitchen "NaCl"
- Hybrid-enabled conferencing

For Details & Floor Plans:

Scan or visit
cure.345pas.com/events

Auditorium

2nd-floor Education and Conference Center

← Education and Conference Center Accommodates up to 460 people

The Cure Education and Conference Center has a flexible, classroom structure with a variety of arrangements to enable meetings of all sizes. Built for the new way of hybrid working, each conference room is outfitted with state-of-the-art technology and supported by our on-site team to offer guests a full suite of planning services, including catering, audiovisual, material design, and publication.

Executive Center Accommodates up to 140 people

Cure's 12th-floor Executive Center features five event spaces – two large boardrooms, one with seating large enough for over 100, and three smaller conference rooms – each boasting full-service, executive dining.

Terrace

13th-floor Rooftop Terrace

← Rooftop Terrace Accommodates up to 180 people inside, 100 people outside

Perched 13 floors above Park Ave South, Cure's exclusive Rooftop Terrace features incredible city views. The interior event space leads out onto a stunning adjoining terrace – easily accessible via a retractable wall.